LETTER FROM PAGE.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] Luray, Va., July 31, 1900 .- The annual camp meeting will begin the first Sunday in August and will continue the fan only one week.

The large tent in already in rosition in the Henkel woods, near Luray, and a successful season is looked for.

The people of Luray are now earnest y at work in the endeavor to secure water works for the town, and besides other works for the town, and besides our action being taken, preliminary surveys have been made over three different routes, the Stony Man or Dry R in the Pass Run and the Spring Farm routes. The popular feeling is largely in favor of securing a route by which the water can be secured by gravity though to do so will increase the original cost largely.

Mr. Walter Campbell, the proprietor of the Mansion Inn, has nearly com-pleted one of the finest double storeroom buildings in this section of the The building is nearly opposite the hotel and makes a fine showing.

The recent rains have helped the corn and other crops a great deal, though this crop will not be an average one, owing to the long severe drought. There has been more than the average number of visitors at the Caverns this summer. They are now in fine condition, many improvements having been recently made. There are the usual number of visitors to Skyland, the hotel on top of the Stony Man, one of the highest points on the Blue Ridge.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she should die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our names that Chamberlain's Colin our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much sugering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by all druggists.
